

Leaflet Trademarks in the Islamic Republic of Iran

Duration

The duration of the trademark is 10 years from the filing date, and is indefinitely renewable with further 10 years' periods.

Compulsory use

Any interested party who proves that the proprietor of the registered mark has failed to use the mark personally or through an authorized person, for at least 3 full years from the registration date until one month before the date of the interested party's application, may apply to the court for cancellation of the registration. The registration shall not be cancelled if it is proved that force majeure has constituted an obstacle to the use of the mark.

Marking

Marking is not compulsory. Marked products have no implications for awarding compensation in case of past infringement.

License

The proprietor of a trademark, or his/her legal successor or agent may grant to a third party a licence to use said mark. The grant of such licence should be registered in order to be valid. Recordal shall be effected at the written request of the registered proprietor, or his/her authorized agent, or the licensee. We suggest that you contact us in case you intend to grant a license under your trademark in Iran.
