

Leaflet Trademarks in Namibia

Duration

The duration of registration of your trademark in Namibia is 10 years from the date of filing the application, and is indefinitely renewable with further 10-year periods.

Compulsory use

Use of a registered trademark is compulsory. If a registered trademark has not been used for 5 consecutive years or more, it may be removed from the register upon request.

Marking

Marking is not compulsory, but recommended. Possible marking includes 'Registered Trade Mark No.'. Marked products may have implications for the amount of compensation in case of past infringement.
