

Leaflet Trademarks in Ukraine

Duration

The duration is 10 years from the filing date, and may be renewed at the owner's request for further periods of 10 years.

Compulsory use

Under the law of the Ukraine, use of the trademark is compulsory. Non-use or insufficient use within 3 years after the publication of the trademark particulars in the Official Bulletin or after the day when the last use was terminated may result in cancellation of such registration at a request of any third party. The use is constituted by applying the trademark on any goods for which it has been registered, their package or any other subjects fixed to the goods, storing goods bearing the said trademark for offering for sale, offering these goods for sale, sale, importation and exportation of these goods; its use in relation to rendering or offering any service in respect of which it has been registered; its use in business papers or advertising, as well as in the Internet, including use in domain names.

Marking

A trademark owner may accompany his mark with a notice advising that the mark is registered in Ukraine.
